3rd May – starting from the Hyatt Regency Hotel at 10.00
Price: 12,00 EUR per person

Belgrade has always had a special strategic significance at the confluence of the Sava and the Danube rivers. This tour includes a visit to the Orthodox Cathedral, the Mansion of Princess Ljubica, Republic Square, Town hall, St. Mark Church, the Belgrade Fair Grounds, and Topcider park, where was the residence of Serbian rulers in the 19th century.

4. THE ROYAL COMPOUND (The Royal and The White Palace), 2 hours

4th May – starting from the Hyatt Regency Hotel at 10.00
Price: 15,00 EUR per person

The Royal Palace was originally built as a summerhouse for the king Aleksandar I Karadjordjevic on Dedinje hill, in Serbian-Byzantine style. The White Palace was built as the residence for the King's three sons. After the World War II the Royal Palace became the official residence of the President Josip Broz Tito. At the beginning of the 21st century, the palace was returned to the Karadjordjevic royal family. Time of visit to be confirmed, depending on the royal protocol duties.
